WILL BE HERE

Fern Creek

By Mrs. H. M. Downey

Snow is the topic of conversation in our community, and very little visiting. Mostly by phone. So far people here about have not been ill. Mr. Ollie Hoeftel fell the first day of snow, severely injuring his lower leg. Mrs. George Young fell while skating at Cherokee Park, severely spraining a wrist. Mrs. S. J. Nicholson slipped in the dining room and has a very bruised arm and side, and Mrs. Graham will be in a long time from the injuries she got in her fall. Your scribe spent a week at Hardford visiting her father, Mr. L. L. Newcom and sister, Mrs. O. Sanderling, after attending the funeral of a life long friend, Yates Everling, January 21, at Clear Run, Ky.

Rumors have it the J. B. Reids coming home next week. Miss Beverly Moore has missed school so far this week. George Young fell while skating at Cherokee Park, severely spraining a wrist. Mrs. S. J. Nicholson slipped in the dining room and has a very bruised arm and side, and Mrs. Graham will be in a long time from the injuries she got in her fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Biehoff, Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Young, Jr., at dinner Sunday at Nicholson Hotel.

John Eshy is recovering nicely from her recent operations.

Mr. Harvey Stout is not so well.

Mr. Henry Groves passed another milestone Sunday, January 26, that's 93 of them. He is hale and hearty, walks to Fern Creek and back nearly every day it fits to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ramey and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mison have moved into their new homes on Fifth School Road, near Fern Creek.

February 11, the W.C.S.C. at Fern Creek are sponsoring an Old Fashioned Box Social in the church basement. Entertainment will be free. Prizes for best decorated box. Open to the public.

Newburg School Club Enjoys Annual Banquet

The annual Newburg School Banquet was given Friday night at the school building. About 50 guests arrived around 6:30 and before the decorated tables which held a menu of chicken and dressing, green beans, slaw, mashed potatoes, congealed salad, rolls, butter, ice cream, home-baked cakes and coffee. Everybody brought their appetites and started right off as soon as Mr. O. J. Stivers gave the blessing. On the program was Mrs. Julius Hart, president of the school club who made a welcome speech, followed by music and singing by Miss Evelyn Bennett, Jackie Adams and M. J. Powell, the attractive Okolona High trio.

Then remarks by teachers, Miss Ruth Willis and Margaret Malone, community singing led by Miss Malone with Mrs. Billy Frey at the piano, and speech by Mr. J. E. Stanford and Mrs. O. J. Stivers. Mr. Stivers complimented the teachers and club for the good work and stated that the teachers would be returned.

The teachers furnished a beautiful bouquet of flowers for the club. The table decorations, napkins, place cards and program books were blue and white, symbolic of the Navy that Franklin Delano Roosevelt loved and this banquet was on his birthday. Mrs. Billy Frey made a nice speech telling why the blue and white decorations and also announced the School Club gave $5.00 to the March of Dimes Fund.

POSEY-HEIMERDINGER

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Jeanne Leane Posey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Posey, and Mrs. Eugene H. Heimerdinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Heimerdinger, were married in St. Luke's Church, Anchorage. Rev. R. C. Board officiated.

Mrs. F. W. Huth and Miss Bee Posey, sisters of the bride, were matron and maid of honor; the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Whitehead, of Smithfield, N. C., and Miss Annabelle Young.

The bride's gown was of white satin with fitted bodice, long neck tie sleeves, high round neckline edged in a ruffle of accordion pleating; the full skirt ending in train was edged in a ruffle of accordion pleating, forming heart design on the front of the skirt. Her finger-tip veil of illusion worn over the face, was adjusted by a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried white tulips and steno-hat.

The attendants wore gowns of American Beauty taffeta, made with fitted bodice and accordion pleated bertha, forming cap design. The full skirts were made with bustle effect. They wore matching gloves and carried pale lavender tulips.

Mr. Dick Heimerdinger was his brother's best man; Messrs. Bobbie Cowan, Tom Wall, and Harold Bomar were ushers.

DAVIS-KOELTZ

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Frederick Koeltz are at home in Jeffersonville, after spending their honeymoon in Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Koeltz was Miss Anna McDonald Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Davis, before their marriage Saturday, January 10. He is the son of Mrs. Caroline Koeltz, a nurse at Kosair Crippled Children's Hospital. Mrs. Koeltz was guest of honor at showers given by Mrs. James Winter, Mrs. Caroline Koeltz and Mrs. Edward Koeltz.

The Richland Homemakers Club will meet February 5, at 10 a. m., at the home of Mrs. W. F. Volt, 4199 Blenheim Road. The lesson on hats in the making will be taught by Mesdames Lyman Chairman and E. D. Tankersley. A discussion on "Consumer's Research" will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rutherford entertained at Sunday dinner, at Graceland Corner, Middletown. Their guests were: Rev. Paul M. Watson and Mrs. Watson, Miss Nancy Holman, of Springfield, Tenn., and Miss Pearl Hartman. Miss Holman spent the week-end with Rev. Watson and Mrs. Watson.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my appreciation to all friends and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown at the death of my wife, Mrs. J. T. Williams. Especially do I thank the pastor, undertaker, pallbearers, singers, donors of flowers and cards of sympathy. — Husband, 38-2.

DEFLATION IS INEVITABLE . . . In Chicago the bubble gum has burst, puffed and blown in a contest which ended up some amazing talent in this particular field of endeavor. Crowded king and queen were king, after producing a 25 inch bubble, received a motor scooter as first prize; and the queen was given $250 worth of clothing.

attended the meeting in Lexington January 29.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. B. J. Williams, with Helen Ellingsworth co-hostess, on Wednesday, February 11. The major lesson will be on hats—Mrs. P. K. Schroeder.

MISS ANNA K. EVANS, the County Home Demonstration Agent, was present with some very interesting ideas pertaining to our last lesson on decorating trays.

The major lesson for the day was on the proper use of sewing machine attachments, brought to us by Dee Rehlman and Helen Ellingsworth.

After a delicious luncheon, served by our hostesses, we continued our meeting with a lesson on houseplants and how to care for them. Mrs. Virginia Standford gave this lesson. She will give a talk on the qualifications of a club officer.

Mr. C. Chibbers was a very able auctioneer for our White Elephant Sale, which turned out very successfully.

LYNDON

Mrs. James Griffin, president of the Lexington Homemakers' Club, is attending the Farm and Home Week in Lexington. She will give a report on the convention at the monthly club meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. L. W. McVaine, Lagrange Road, on Tuesday, February 10, at 10:30 a. m.

Also at this meeting, an interesting lesson will be given by Mrs. Carl Ray on "Making the New Spring Bonnet with the Hille Trail."

All members are requested to bring their donations of work clothes or hats to be mailed to some worthy family in England.—Mrs. H. S. Summers.

FAIRMOUNT

The Fairmount Homemakers Club held their regular monthly meeting January 20 in the home of Mrs. Lee Markwell on Brentling Lane. Twenty members answered roll call, three being absent.

Our hearts were saddened by the news of one of our members, Mrs. M. B. Graham, who fell January 19 and had to be taken to the hospital.

The morning was spent in learning the use of sewing machine attachments which was given by Mrs. Matt Leathers.

After a delicious luncheon, which was served by the hostess, the business meeting came to order. Our chaplain, Mrs. Whit-horn, read Galatians 6:1-18 after which Mrs. Riley led in prayer.

After the business hour birthday gifts were given, games were played and we adjourned to meet in February with Mrs. Walter Duncan.—Mrs. J. D. Holloway, publicity chairman.

LEXINGTON MANOR GROUP Chooses Stewart Pres.

Donald Stewart, 412 Fairlane Road, was elected president of the Lexington Manor Association at a meeting Monday at the home of Fred Markel, 3500 Lexington Road.

The Association is composed of a group of homeowners in Lexington Manor which is bounded on the west by Cannons Lane, on the east by Bauer Avenue, on the north by Lexington Road and on the south by Willis Avenue. Its purpose is to elect officers, is to enforce rules and restrictions imposed by the house-committee, to plan and erect all homes proposed to be erected in the area.

Firemen Battle $7,500 Fire; Get Second Call

Fire did about $7,500 damage Sunday to a house under construction in the 4100 block of Brookline. It was owned by Joseph F. Dietrich, contractor, of 407 Godfrey.

John Monahan, president of the St. Matthews Fire Department, said the blaze evidently was started by an overheated furnace which was being used to dry out fresh plaster.

When firemen were putting hose away County Police notified them of another fire on the Upper River Road estate of Dr. W. E. MacGregor. However, County Police radioed while they were enroute that the fire had been extinguished.

St. Matthews Volunteers also were called to Buechel last Thursday to assist in fighting a house fire there.

School Girl Struck By Car

Mary Satterley, 14, of Finchville, was injured fatally after getting off the school bus and starting across the road to a mailbox near her home on Mt. Eden Road. The car was driven by Mrs. Robert Turner. Charley Floyd, Finchville, was the driver of the bus. Survivors are her mother, Mrs. John Stevens, her stepfather, a younger brother and two half brothers and a half sister. I want to say right here, "Children watch your step!"
